WEDDED LAST NIGHT AT BRIDE'S HOME

Miss Lilian M. Schwarzmann Bride of Milton Schuyler Yost

HOUSE DECORATED

Bride Attended by Sister Miss Pearl Schwarzmann and Bridegroom by Brother Harold Yost of New York.

A pretty marriage ceremony was solemnized at 8 o'clock last night at the residence of Police Commissioner and Mrs. George H. Schwarzmann, 117 North Alfred street when their daughter Miss Lilian M. Schwarzmann became the bride of Mr. Milton Schuyler Yost of New York. The ceremony took place in the parlors which were prettily decorated with palms, dahlias, ferns and roses. The bride was given in marriage by her father and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. E. V. Regester, pastor of the M. E. Church South.

A wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. Andrew Schwarzmann.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Pearl Schwarzmann and the bridegroom had for his best man Mr. Harold Yost of New York City.

The brides wedding gown was of white La France satin, an Empress Eugenie model. The bodice was caught on the right side with an exquisite corsage of pale pink moss roses. The over-drop skirt was covered with circles of white ostrich. The dainty and simple coronet veil of tulle was held in place with a crown of moss roses to correspond with the corsage.

The traveling suit of trooper brown duvetyn was trimmed in fisher fur, the smart cape fastening in the back and finished with a wide band of fur.

The maid of honor Miss Pearl Schwarzmann, sister of the bride, wore a charming creation of lime green La France satin, Premet model ostrich trimmed.

Following the wedding a reception was held and music was furnished by an orchestra. Many out of town guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Yost left for an extended southern bridal trip and upon their return will reside in New York City.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Yost, William Yost, parents and brother of the bridegroom Miss Nellie Mckinnan, New York, Miss Marie Dahm, New York, Miss Minerva Thompson, Atlantic City, Mr. James Long, Union, S. C., and others.

MOOSE CAMPAIGN IS ON

Bert O'Brien Here for 90 Days—1,000 Members Here is Slogan

Bert O'Brien, district deputy supervisor for the Loyal Order of Moose, stated today that the local lodge has started a campaign to increase its membership. He says that already close to 25 aplications have been received and that the prospects look very bright for a great campaign. He further states that his slogan is 1,000 members for Alexandria and inasmuch as the charter is open for 90 days he feels that the task can be accomplished. He arrived in the city last Friday evening from Hampton, Va., where he finished a very successful campaign.

The Moose will hold meetings every Monday night in their hall above the Alexandria National Bank. The Organization Headquarters is located at 216 King street where applications will be received for membership.

Mr. O'Brien stated that he thought Alexandria a fine city and the hospitality extended to a stranger was of the highest order. He is here under direction of the Supreme Lodge.

AIDED DEADLY DUEL

Survivor of Three-Sided Fight Guilty of Second Degree Murder

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 2.—After being out all night, the jury in the Court of General Sessions yesterday rendered a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree in the case of Joseph Barino, charged wth the murder of Tony Pietropicalo on June 8. The attorneys for the defense were granted a stay of judgment.

It was one of the most sensational murder cases tried in this city in some time. While no evidence was produced in Court to that effect, it is stated that Pietropicalo, referred to as "Topy," and Carmine Rondo had a dispute over an American woman. When they came to blows it was testified that Barino, to protect Carmine, a cousin, went into his house and procured a pistol, with which he shot Toney. Although dying, the wounded man propped himself against a telegraph pole and fired at Carmine until the latter fell, firing meanwhile at Tony. Both men died within a few minutes, while the accused Barino calmly sat on his front porch watching developments until the police arrived to put him under arrest.

DIES AS MILLIONS COME

Aged Man Passes Soon After Being Awarded Uncle's Estate.

New Kensington, Pa., Oct. 2.—Shortly after he received notice that he had been awarded the estate of his uncle, Baron William Dunn, of Suffolk, England, who died seven months ago, David W. WHITES AND BLACKS IN ANOTHER CLASH

Fifteen Men Killed Early This Morning in Ellaine, Ark.

SEND 500 SOLDIERS

Oversea Veterans of the Third Division Armed With Machine Guns, Have Charge of the Situation.

Helena, Ark., Oct. 2.—Fifteen men were killed when whites and negroes clashed again in a race riot at Ellaine Ark., at 1 o'clock this morning.

Helena has sent 500 men to the scene and 300 more, fully armed, are held in readiness in the court house here. Clarendon, Ark., 30 men, and Mc Gee, Ark., 25. They have all gone to the scene of the trouble, which is between Ellaine and Hoop Spur.

Three white men were killed yesterday.

Five hundred soldiers from Camp Pike arrived there this morning. They are overseas veterans of the Third Division and are armed with machine guns.

Helena is patrolled by citizens, but no trouble has broken out here.

The disturbance started Wednesday morning, when Sheriff Kitchens sent deputies to arrest a bootlegger nar Ellaine. The officers were fired on from a negro church. One was killed out right and another seriously wounded.

At 10 a. m. they telephoned that 150 whites in that vicinity were surrounded by 1,500 negroes, and asked that assistance be sent.

Hundreds of white men began moving toward the scene of the disturbance, many crossing the Mississippi river from the Mississippi side.

One hundred prisoners, arrested at Ellaine, were brought to the Helena jail today for safe keeping. They were herded into town by the sheriff's posse, which was sent to Elaine when rioting got beyond control of local authorities.

TWO KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

Former Yale Football Star Also Fatally Hurt

Keansburg, N. J., Oct. 2.—John A. Hall, of Sewaren, a former Yale football player, was so seriously injured that he is not expected to live, and his wife and her mother, Mrs. Anna Franklin were killed today when their automobile was struck by a New Jersey Central Railroad train on a grade crossing near here.

The chauffeur, Martin Gafney, also was hurt, but his injuries are not considered serious.

TIES UP MAGAZINES

358 Trade Publications Also Affected by Walkout of N. Y. Pressmen

New York, Oct. 2.—Fiction lovers may have to wait indefinitely for that next installment of their favorite serial, owing to the combined strike and lockout of 6,000 pressmen here.

The labor trouble, according to the Printers League, composed of employers, mean "to be continued" for 53 popular magazines, in addition to 358 trade publications. About 75 per cent of the commercial printing houses in the city were affected.

The strike lockout was the culmination of the fight between the league and the International Typographical Union on one side and the so called "Outlaw" Pressmen's and Press Feeders' Unions of New York, on the other.

The lockout was directed only against pressmen not affiliated with the International Union.

STRIKE NEARS COMPROMISE

London, Oct. 2.—The British railway strike seemed to have progressed several stages nearer settlement today when conferences between Premier Lloyd George and the Labor representatives were to be resumed.

While the negotiations yesterday and early today did not bring a solution of the difficulties, it was stated in government and labor circles today that the preliminary discussion had paved the way for an adjustment.

J. H. Thomas, secretary of the railway union, announced at the close of the early morning conference that the labor men would meet the premier later in the day.

"Having come together again," Thomas said, "it is the duty of both sides to see that we don't break until a settlement is reached. That is the spirit of the negotiations."

ROZANOFF APOLOGIZES

Promises to Punish Troops Guilty of Mistreating Americans

Washington, D. C., Oct. 2.—Boris Bakmeteff, the Russian Ambassador informed the State Department yesterday that General Rozanoff, the superior Russian commander in Siberia, had apologized to Major General Graves, commanding the American forces in Siberia, for the incident at Iman, Siberia, September 5, involving the arrest by Cossacks of an American officer and enlisted men and the flogging of the latter.

The Ambassador also said General Rozanoff had promised to call for the punishment of the troops which had been guilty of the mistreatment of the Americans.

DROWNS SELF IN BATHTUB

Old Housekeeper Had Suffered Nervous Breakdown

Woodbury, N. J., Oct. 2.—The body of Miss Helen Greely, aged 55 years was found yesterday morning in teh bathtub at teh residence of William S. Conner, where she has been housekeepr for 30 years. The woman had only partly recovered from a severe nervous breakdown and the supposition is that while temporarily deranged she took this method of suicide.

When Mr. Conner arose yesterday morning at 8 o'clock he found that his breakfast was not ready and called a sister of Miss Greely, who found the woman dead.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of my dear husband, William Thomas, who departed this life one year ago today, October 2, 1918.

Why mourn a tired pilgrim,
When life's declining sun
Drifts into deaths lone twilight,
It's ransient bread full spun.
Why grieve even if too swiftly,
Ebbs out one's troubled days
The cherished form left slumbering
A while from sight away.

By his loving wife,

DON'T SET THE CLOCK BACK UNTIL OCTOBER 26

The daylight saving repeal bill is not effective until Sunday, October 26. On that date every clock in the United States will be turned back one hour. Until then the time will remain as it is.

If you set your clock back last night, move it up again; otherwise you'll miss your train, be late at the office in the morning, upset the baby's feeding schedule and make a host of other errors.

30 MILE LAVA STREAM

Hawaiian Volcano Discharges Molten Rock Into the Sea

Hilo, T. H., Oct. 2.—A stream of lava from 800 feet to one mile wide and 30 miles long is pouring from the 13,000 foot crater of the volcano Mauna Loa, on the oppsite side of the Island of Hawaii from this city, into the sea, yesterday.

The lava overtopped the crater late last Monday night and reached the sea Tuesday morning, nearly 12 hours ahead of the time it had been expected to do so. The eruption of Mauna Loa began four days ago, and subsided in violence after a brief duration, only to break forth with new force Monday night.

Two ranch homes and other valuable property have been destroyed by the molten rock.

39TH VICTIM OF NEGROES

Another Woman Assaulted in Omaha While U. S. Troops Patrol Streets

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 2.—While Federal troops patrolled the Omaha "black belt" yesterday to prevent any possible conflict between whites and negroes following the rioting of last Sunday night, a white woman, Mrs. W. G. Wisener, was attacked in her home yesterday afternoon by a negro. The attack followed 38 similar crimes since June 1.

Major General Leonard Wood commanding the troops here, ordered the patrols strengthened last night and in order to keep down public indignation, requested the newspapers to withhold details of the assault. The city was quiet last night.

Mrs. Wisener was attasked yesterday afternoon, according to her story to military and police officers, by a negro who entered her home and threatened to kill her and her two children, 8 and 12 years old, in case of an outcry. The Wisener home is on the western edge of the "black belt." The negro bound and gagged her with a towel, the woman said. Her oldest child called her brother, Ralph Gilson, who rushed to the home and loosened the rags with which the negro had bound her. He notified the military patrol and a cordon of troops was at once placed around the district and no one was allowed to enter or leave.

Military authorities were taking every precaution last night to prevent a repetition of the riots and lynching Sunday night which resulted in three deaths and the burning of the county building with a loss estimated at $1,000,000.

MORE MEN RETURN

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 2.—The steel strike pursued the slow, even tenor of its way here today with the eyes of its principals centered on Washington where Senator Kenyon's investigation committee continues to hold the spotlight.

Progress was claimed by operators—the slow, methodical progress which told of more men entering the mills, here and there additional works being put in operation, and a slow rise in the production of the finished material.

No big gains have been made by the companies. On the other hand the the strikers have hardly made any They are getting a dribble of men into the organization, but not in such numbers to affect the outcome of the struggle either way.

THE IMPENDING CRISIS

We notice in some exchanges this morning optimistic editorials on the work of the church in the crisis through which the world is now passing. One says "all the forces of religion and civilization are being massed to combat radicalism and to preserve the stability of the nation." Another article tells of the purposed labors of a prominent organization of the church which will endeavor to Christianize labor and capital.

It is earnestly hoped that the work of the church and its auxiliary organizations may be blessed in heaven, and the great desideratum so long sighed for soon be in evidence.

Bolshevism and radicalism generally are enemies of the church and all its teachings, and references to the Bible are unheeded by headstrong men. For instance, what would be the sense of such quotations as the following to wild-eyed fanatics: "Let your conversation be without covetness, and be content with such things as ye have." Or the words of John the Baptist: "Be content with your wages." It would be casting pearls to swine or that which is holy unto the dogs, which we are commanded not to do.

The church may be called upon to combat the forces of evil another way. The teachings of the disorderly element of present day may head up in the long-anticipated Anti-Christ. While the last books of the Bible were being penned we are told there were many such in the world. But is the embodiment of them all to come to the front in our day? Who can tell?

MOB VIOLENCE

The most serious aspect of the rioting in Omaha is disclosed in the following paragraph from a dispatch from that city, assuming it to be the truth,

"But while the mob does not meet with the approval of business and professional men of the city, it undoubtedly met with the approval of the average working man as well as clerks, stenographers, and people of those classes. These, constituting by far the majority, are not only not ashamed, but are actually pleased at the work of the mob last night. They are proud that Omaha lynched a negro, burned his body, wrecked a million dollar Court House and jail, burned thousands of valuable records and strung the Mayor of the city up to a trolley pole because he refused to order the police to throw the negro bum into the hands of thousands who were clamoring for his blood."

Lawless elements, criminal elements, exist everywhere, and the moment authority is relaxed; as in the Boston police strike, break out into lawlessness. City authorities are generally timid about using force for the maintenance of order; they are too apt to wait until violence has begun before they take adequate means of controlling those who do not control themselves. But when the greater part of the population approve of such a mob outbreak as that which has disgraced Omaha and the country, the foundations of civil order and popular government are undermined.

"RED" LEADERS

It is quite useless for Mr. Gompers and Judge Altschuler to guarantee the harmlessness of William Z. Foster. His book of 1915 gives no indication of a change of opinions since his pamphlet on "Syndicalism" in 1912. Judge Altschuler's opinion of him tells us more about the Judge than it does about Mr. Foster.

Foster would have no property and no Government. Occasionally the labor unions might agree on something. No Courts would be necessary, because the unions can decide everything, and if there is no ownership there can be no controversies over property rights. The railroads will be run by the engineers and the trainmen and the shopmen; the steel works would belong to the men who feed the fires and manage the molten metal. The schools will be conducted by the teachers. It is all like a fair story, and just as capable of being realized.

As a contemporary says, this class is aiming at the social revolution, and a community without government, except that of labor unions, without property or Courts or Legislatures; no government of the people and by the people and for the people, but government of organized labor, by organized labor and for organized labor, under which majorities are of no consequence unless they happen to be on the side of the labor unions, which they are not yet, and the end of which is the abolition of private property and popular government."

INITIATIVE PASSES

With the Bethlehem fizzle the initiative passes from the strikers to the employers says the New York Times. "The attack has failed, and the attackers are now on the defense. That their condition worries them is shown by their efforts to induce the four railway brotherhoods to reconsider the refusal by one of them to take sympathetic action. Next to the railway brotherhoods, the steel strikers are the best paid class of labor in the country. The spectale of these two classes acting sympathetically against other workers and the entire country would be one or more danger to them than to the country, for the echo would be louder than the original protest against the steel strike. Labor agitation met its Waterloo when President Wilson declared that the vicious circle of increases of wages and the cost of living must be broken. It is in vain that the steel strikers are looking for some Blucher, from Bethlehem or elsewhere, to rescue them from their dilemma. A defeat which cannot be disguised would be the public's best protection against an endless series of annoyances, but none with less justification than the steel strike."

FIVE YEARS FOR ASSAULT

Negro At Luray Given Term in The Penitentiary

Luray, Va., Oct. 2.—John Spencer colored, was convicted of criminal assault in the Page County Court at a late hour Tuesday night and given a five year term in the penitentiary. The court was in session until after midnight and a verdict was reached soon after.

The court yesterday morning began a similar case, that of the Commonwealth against James Ory, his alleged victim being Doris Richards, an 11-year-old girl from Shenandoah, this county. Luray all day has been filled with Orya friends and that of the girl. Notwithstanding the excitement incident to the trial of two such cases within 48 hours in this place the town is quiet.

BALANCE OF $1,184,497

State's Fiscal Year Ends With Increase of $2,705,601.96 in Receipts Over 1918.

Richmond, Oct. 2.—Virginia's treasury shows a balance of $1,184,487.52. The fiscal year of the State ended yesterday at 3 o'clock, when the books in the office of State Auditor C. Lee Moore were closed after an unusually busy day, featured by the disbursement of $223,000 and the receipt of $100,000 from many sources.

But of the balance of more than $1,000,000, only about $150,000 will go to swell the coffers of the Commonwealth. The remainder will be turned over to the separate departments for which the revenue was specially set aside or be diverted to several standing funds which depend annually on receipts collected by the Auditor's office.

Thirty minutes after the last payment had been received at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, officials in the department were prepared to announce that total receipts for the year 1919 had been $2,705,601.96 in excess of the revenues for 1918. Total receipts for the year were announced as $18,035,622.41. Disbursements for all purposes were $12,651,785.43. This shows an excess of receipts over disbursements of $383,836.98.

Today the literary fund of the State is richer by $183,000 than it was before. This sum was collected in various courts all over Virginia as fines for a wide range of offenses. It will go for the maintenance of the State Library and other literary projects under the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth. The 8-cent tax levy on general property provided by the General Assembly at its last regular session in 1918 yielded $1,005,000. This fig accounts in large measure for the increase in receipts for 1919 over those for 1918. Receipts will go for roads, schools and tuberculosis treatment and prevention.

Railroad franchise taxes provided $246,000 of the $2,705,000 increase in revenue. The income tax brought in $240,000, the license tax $226,500 the personal property tax $138,000, and the process of law tax $125,000. Licenses on automobiles paid into the treasury $156,000. Insurance companies did an unusually heavy business and paid in taxes $124,500.

FIRST VOTE TODAY

Washington, Oct. 2.—The first vote on amendments to the German peace treaty will be taken in the Senate this afternoon.

Formal agreement was reached late yesterday by Republican and Democratic leaders to call up at 2 o'clock the 36 amendments proposed by Senator Fall, Republican, of New Mexico, adoption of which would eliminate the United States from representation on numerous foreign commissions created by the treaty. The agreement provides for discussion under the five-minute rule and a vote before adjournment tomorrow night.

Democratic leaders declared last night that all of the amendments would be beaten. Some Republicans admitted privately that this claim was correct.

AVOID THE "FLU" BUILD UP NOW

You can almost surely escape the "Flu" and Grippy Colds this Fall by Taking Chasco- Vin a Most Palatable Body-Building Tonic.

Don't put it off its, much easier to keep the "Flu" away than it is to cure it.

No one would have the awful experience of a year ago repeated hence all should take every precaution, especially those who are weak nervous and run-down. They absolutely need Chasco-Vin.

During the last epidemic thousands were safeguarded by taking Chasco-Vin, a body-building tonic that does build.

It is the toning up of the system that counts in keeping the "Flu" away.

In conjunction with Chasco-Vin we advise using a good anti-septic solution for the throat and nose and also that the bowels be kept open.

Chasco-Vin is sold by Edgar Warfield, jr., King and Pitt Streets.

Admiral Sims' Own Story

WILLIAM SOWDEN SIMS
The man who will go down to history as the great American admiral who played a vital part in defeating the German submarine menace.

The Washington Sunday Star has obtained for publication Admiral Sims' personal narrative of the vital part the American Navy played in winning the world war. It is a story that will thrill every American with pride and gratitude, and is told now for the first time.

Admiral Sims' story will amaze the world, and the reader will hold his breath as he realizes how close to disaster we were, all unsuspecting. He gives for the first time details of the American invention which, at the time the armistice was signed, practically had the U-boats bottled up in the North sea—an invention much speculated upon, but never before explained in print. Many other things which have mystified the world are explained and secrets are revealed which have been kept locked in the breasts of cabinet ministers.

The Sunday Star published the opening chapters of Admiral Sims' story last Sunday (September 28), and the demand was so great that the entire edition was quickly exhausted. The Star has had made a reprint of these opening chapters, which will be mailed free upon receipt of a postal card request, giving name and address.

The story will be continued in weekly installments. To make sure of getting a copy of next Sunday's paper place order today with your newsdealer.

The Sunday Star by mail: One month, 20 cents; six months, $1.20; one year $2.40.

Loyal Order of MOOSE
Has Opened Its Charter
Initiation Fee, $6
For a Limited Time Only
Our Slogan 1,000 Members in 90 Days

By BERT O'BRIEN, DISTRICT DEPUTY SUPERVISOR

Citizens of Alexandria, The Loyal Order of Moose have started a membership Campaign in this Historic city and I wish in this little article to bring to your attention the great Principles of this great Order. We are the third largest Fraternal and Beneficial Order in the world. Our membership stands today at 725,332. We have 1,635 Lodges and today we have 750 children at our Gigantic and wonderful Home at MooseHeart, Ill., 35 miles from Chicago. The Moose is not a insignificent or small organization but a powerful factor in the world for the care and protection of its members and their families. If you were a member of the Moose and you should die your wife and family would be welcomed at Mooseheart and the children given Vocational training fitting them whether boy or girl to face the battles that will present themselves in future years and the mother with her mother love would be with her children during these, the most important years of their lives. The Local Campaign is on, the initiation fee is $6 for a limited time only, the Alexandria Lodge pays $9 per week sick or accident benefits and $100 funeral benefits. And as stated above the privilege of Mooseheart and the 1,635 Moose Homes. Dues $11.00 per year, paid quarterly. Come to my office and make application for membership or give your application to any member of the order that you perhaps may know. My offices are located at 216 King Street. Office hours 8 to 10 a. m. and 3.30 to 10 p. m. I would be glad to talk to you. Join today and take advantage of the greatest opportunity of your life. Remember that the low fee of $6 is for a short time and later on the initiation fee will be $20. Bert O'Brien.

Following is a Statement of a Local Member of the Order Telling Why He Became a MOOSE

While motoring with a party of friends through the Fox River Valley a short ride from Chicago and a very short distance from Aurora, Ill., it was suggested to visit Mooseheart, of course I was anxious to do so and upon my arrival there, was treated royally by the officers in charge and the rest of the attendants who we met on our tour around Mooseheart.

I thought well of all I had seen. The classes in there respective sessions and different occupations taught the children. But to see a nurse in charge of the little ones on the lawn, I could not resist the oportunity to join them in their frolic, being a lover of children.

So after a few moments with them I thought of the good work to be done, and therefore made my application for membership very soon after. Any man whether married or single can never make a wrong step in joining the Loyal Order of Moose as I have found it to be a great asset to me in arriving in strange places. well as a way to spend money and help the little tots that are left without the care of a father or mother and in some cases without either parent.

H. B. REESE, Member of Baltimore Lodge No. 20.

Brother Herman Chichester Dictator of the Local Lodge gives his impression of the wonderful Mooseheart. His statement follows:

I have been a member of the Loyal Order of Moose for a number of years. I had read much about Mooseheart and heard the reports from different brothers who visited there. A strong desire prevailed upon me to visit this institution so a few months ago I made a trip to this Mecca of the Moose. There I found a little city, where everything dear to the home living instinct of every father and mother would have been appealed to could they have seen this miniature nation of little ones as I saw them. A community of children whose natural protectors have passed on, governed and ruled by the principles of love. They are given every opportunity to find their niche in this world, their individuality protected and its growth encouraged, their citizenship assured by being taught truthful economics, guided but not governed—as they govern themselves—by men and women selected for their big hearts and real ability.

You that have children and you that have love for humanity will cultivate a closer knowledge of the Loyal Order of Moose and Mooseheart.

WIDOW AND SON KILLED

Three Bullets Are Fired Into Body of Benefactor Without Any Warning

Plainfield, N. J., Oct. 2.—Mrs. Catherine Herr and her son, Albert, 17 years old, were shot to death yesterday in the rear of a small dry goods store in Plainfield, which she had taken over as security for promissory notes by John Amar, a Spaniard. Amar had formerly owned the store and owed Mrs. Herr about $1500, according to the police.

Mrs. Herr foreclosed on the property several months ago and Amar had made repeated efforts to borrow more money from her. These demands the widow refused and it is said that heated arguments resulted.

When Amar entered the store yesterday afternoon Samuel Hill, a chauffeur employed by Mrs. Herr, was the only person in sight. Amar the police say, opeed fire upon the negro, who dodged and ran out of the place. Amar proceeded through the store to a rear room, where he found Mrs. Herr and Albert.

The Spaniard fired one bullet, striking Mrs. Herr in the neck, killing her. Two other bullets lodged in her body. Albert was shot through the lungs. The crowd hearing the shots surrounded the entrance of the store, and when Amar ran out the men fell upon him. There were threats of lynching, but Police Lieutenant Higgins placed Amar under arrest and saved him from lynching.

Little is known about Amar. He came to Plainfield about a year ago and opened "The Panama Store," where odds and ends of women's wearing apparel were placed on sale. The business did not prosper and Amar borrowed money from Mrs. Herr.

Mrs. Herr's husband, who organized the Plainfield Business College in Plainfield, committed suicide in 1916. Mrs. Herr continued the management of the college after his death.

NINE DIE IN RACE RIOTS

Two Whites and Seven Negroes Killed in Clash at Elaine, Ark.

Helena, Ark., Oct. 2.—Two white men, Clinton Lee and J. A. Tappan, of Helena and seven negroes are dead as a result of clashes yesterday at Elaine, near here, between posses searching for the persons who last night from ambush fired upon and killed W. D. Adkins, railroad special agent, according to reports reaching here last night. A third white man, Ira Proctor, and a number of negroes are known to have been wounded.

The situation at Elaine is critical and growing worse, according to telephone message received by county Judge S. D. Moore here, from Joseph Meyers, who is heading a posse. Meyers was quoted as saying he expected another clash at any moment and requested that a special train with reinforcements be sent immediately. Five hundred soldiers from Camp Pike are on their way to the scene of the rioting.

More than a hundred negroes and a white man who is alleged to have had in his possession a quantity of questionable literature, had been arrested by posses operating in Elaine and vicinity when he left, according to former sheriff Amos Jarman, who arrived here late yesterday.

PETRIFIED SNAKES

Den of Rattlers Found While Blasting for New Road Near Appalachia, Virginia

In blasting to widen the road near Appalachia, in Southwest Virginia, a petrified den of rattlesnakes was discovered a few days ago. Some of the rattlesnakes are full grown, six feet long and plainly defined. One petrified black snake is believed to have been taken prisoner just before the earthquake which caught the den of rattlers in a convolution. A communication from Bristol says that the curious phenomena are being daily mutilated by relic hunters.

MITCHELL LEAVES $250,000

Wife Files Will of Former Labor Leader, Written in Own Hand

White Plains, N. Y., Oct. 2.—John Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers of America, left an estate of $250,000, mostly in stocks and bonds, according to a petition for letters of administration filed in the Surrogate's Court of West Chester county.

In a will written in his own handwriting before his death, but believed to be invalid because it lacked witnesses, the labor leader bequeathed all but $10,000 of his estate to his wife and children. The $10,0000 was to be divided among other relatives and close friends.

The petition was filed by Mrs. Catherine Mitchell, the labor leaders widow, who lives in Mt. Vernon. It sets forth that Mr. Mitchell left no real estate, but did leave stocks in coal, railroad and industrial corporations valued at $156,000; bonds valued at $71,900, notes worth $2600 and about $20,000 in cash.

WILSON'S CONDITION

Progress Not as Marked as it Had Been Tuesday

Washington, Oct. 2.—No important change in the condition of President Wilson was noted in yesterday's White House bulletin, although it was said his progress toward recovery was not so apparent as it had been Tuesday.

Throughout the day the President felt the effects of another rest less night. During the morning, however, he was able to get some sleep, and the remainder of the day be devoted to almost complete rest. Despite the damp atmosphere, Dr. Grayson again prescribed an afternoon automobile ride, and it was said the patient seemed beenfitted by it.

At 10 o'clock last night the White House announced there was no change in the President's condition.

Dr. Grayson at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon issued the following bulletin:

"The President had a restless night and consequently is feeling somewhat jaded today."

REED EGGED FROM STAGE

Missouri Senator Prevented From Speaking Against Treaty At Ardmore, Okla.

Ardmore, Okla., Oct. 2.—United States Senator James A. Reed was egged from the stage at Convention Hall last night as he was being introduced by the Mayor in preparation of his speech against the treaty and league of nations.

As Senator Reed came on the stage all light wires to the building were cut. Pandimonium broke loose and cries of derision howled him down, while the audience surged upon the stage. Reed attempted to hold the floor for a few minutes but was forced to make his exit without beginning his speech.

After several minutes of the demonstration a number of women climbed upon the stage and quieted the crowd. Reed could not be seen at his hotel here last night, but it was announced that he would make no attempt to deliver his address.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

OFFICE OF

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS to the Constitution of Virginia, agreed to at session of General Assembly 1918, and published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act approved February 3, 1908.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 32 of article 2 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate, the house of delegates concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be, and the same is hereby, proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section thirty-two, which is in the following words:

Sec. 32. Every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision of the State, wherein he resides, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except that this provision as to residence shall not apply to any office elective by the people where the law provides otherwise. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public, and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 32. Every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision of the State, wherein he resides, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except that this provision as to residence shall not apply to any office elective by the people where the law provides otherwise; and except further, that the requirements of this section as to residence and voting qualifications shall not apply in the appointment of persons to fill positions under a municipal government requiring special technical or professional training and experience. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 138 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the senate, the house of delegates concurring, (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing). That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-eight, which is in the following words:

Section 138. The general assembly may, in its discretion provide for the compulsory education of children between the ages of eight and twelve years, except such as are weak in body or mind, or can read and write, or are attending private schools, or are excused for cause by the district school trustees.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 138. The general assembly may, in its discretion, provide for the compulsory education of children of school age.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 117 of article 8 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate and the house of delegates (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of senators and members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity to the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and seventeen, which is in the words and figures following, to-wit:

Section 117. General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house; and except also in the case of cities having more than fifty thousand inhabitants, as hereinafter provided. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this amendment a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended so as to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

Notwithstanding, however, anything in this article contained the general assembly may, by general law or by special act (passed as prescribed in article four of this Constitution), depart in any respect (except as otherwise in this section expressly provided) from the form of organization and government prescribed by this article for cities and towns, and may provide, from time to time, for the various cities and towns of the Commonwealth such form or forms of municipal government as the general assembly may deem best; but no form or forms of government authorized by the second paragraph of this section shall become operative except as to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of its qualified electors at an election to be held as may be prescribed therefor by law. All the limitations on the powers of the councils of cities and towns imposed by this article shall apply in like manner to the principal legislative authority under any form of government which may be authorized hereunder. The term "council" as used in sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and twenty-seven of this Constitution shall be construed to include the body which, under any form of municipal government, shall be vested with the principal legislative authority of such municipality.

The general assembly, for the purpose of this article, may classify cities according to their population, but the maximum population prescribed for any class shall exceed the minimum population for the same class by at least ten thousand. The general assembly, at the request, made in manner which may be prescribed by law, of any city having a population of over fifty thousand inhabitants, may grant a special form of government for such city.

Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurer and city sergeants.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 117. (a) General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this Constitution a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly: provided, that every such charter is hereby amended to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

(b) The general assembly may, by general law or by special act, (passed in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution) provide for the organization and government of cities and towns without regard to, and unaffected by any of the provisions of this article, except those of sections one hundred and twenty-four, one hundred and twenty-five, (except so far as the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-five recognize the office of mayor and the power of veto) one hundred and twenty-six, one hundred and twenty-seven and one hundred and twenty-eight of this article and except those mentioned in sub-section (d) of it is section. The term "council" as used in any of said sections shall include the body exercising legislative authority for the city or town, and all ordinances adopted and resolutions adopted by such body shall have the same force and effect for all purposes, as if enacted or adopted in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-three of this article. But such organization and government shall apply only to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of those qualified voters of any such city or town voting in an election to be held for the purpose, as may be provided by law.

(c) The general assembly, at the request of any city or town made in manner provided by law, may grant to it any special form of organization and government authorized by sub-section (b) of this section, and subject to all of the provisions of that sub-section, except that it shall not be necessary for such city or town to thereafter adopt the same.

(d) Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurers and city sergeants.

(e) Any form of organization and government authorized by any provision of this section which may have been adopted heretofore by any city or town pursuant to any act of the general assembly enacted before such provision became effective, and which is now in operation, is hereby declared legal and valid ab initio and shall have the same force and effect as if it had been authorized by this Constitution at the time of its adoption.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 133 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (the majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto). That the following amendment to section one hundred and thirty-three, article nine, of the Constitution of Virginia, be and is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly at the first regular session held after the next general election of members of the house of delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-three of article nine, which is in the following words:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be not more than three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

Men and women may serve as school trustees in said districts, and in cities and in towns forming separate school districts.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 184 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing) That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and eighty-four, which is in the following words:

Section 184. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued, except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 184. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to construct, or reconstruct, public roads, to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

A RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section 136 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next session of the general assembly.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-six, which is in the following words:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate five mills on the dollar in any one year, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided, that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties, and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate in any one year a rate of levy to be fixed by law, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of amendments proposed to the Constitution and agreed to by the General Assembly of Virginia, session 1918, and the same is published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act of the General Assembly, approved February 3, 1908

PUBLIC SALE

Under and by virtue of authority vested in the undersigned by deed of assignment, dated September 22, 1919, by C. G. Leary, and wife, and P. H. Leary, and duly recorded among the land records of Prince William County, Virginia. I will offer for sale at public auction, on

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10th, 1919, beginning at 11 o'clock a. m., in the town of Quantico, Virginia, in Prince William County, the following property:

One lot of land, being lot 22, in block 13, section A, of the plat of Quantico, which lot is 25 feet by 110 feet, fronting on Potomac Avenue, together with the two-story, frame store building thereon. This building contains large store room in front and a ware room and three living rooms in rear, has nine bed rooms and bath upstairs, entire building is 23 by 75 feet, and has water system complete, and private lighting plant. Entire outside and inside and the store outside andl inside and the store room and ware room are now being used as store. Rooms upstairs and down now renting for $130 per month.

Also the entire stock of goods, wares and merchandise contained in the said store, together with all fixtures, an inventory of which shows a value of about $6,000. Not a cent's worth of this stock is dead stock, all in good condition.

Building will be sold subject to November 1st, 1919, or tenant will remain at option of purchaser. Immediate delivery of possession of all other property.

Terms of Sale. The lot and building will be sold first, then the stock of goods in bulk separate, and then both together, the most advantageous bid being accepted.

Cash for entire stock of goods and fixtures. One-half cash for lot and building, remainder in three equal payments in six twelve and eighteen months, evidenced by interest bearing notes, secured by deed of trust upon the property, or terms of all cash at the option of the purchaser.

The inventory of this stock of goods or the stock of goods and the building and premises, will be shown to any prospective purchaser upon application to the undersigned trustee. For any further information apply to the undersigned.

Steel Manufacturers Defended in Position at Harrisburg Meeting

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 2.—The State Chamber of Commerce closed its first annual meeting here Tuesday after adopting a series of resolutions declaring that present strike of workers in the steel trade marks a pivotal point in industrial unrest and supporting "the position of the steel manufacturers in defending the rights of all workers to earn their livelihood unmolested and in maintaining this right to deal with their employees without the interference of outsiders," also expressed the hope that the controversy would be "adjusted without political interference."

The chamber adopted resolutions urging the people to consider the fundamental rights guaranteed by the Constitution; commending the statements of Governor Sproul "enjoining the maintenance of law and order."

KILLS NEGRO BEFORE DYING

Fires Bullet Into Alleged Assailant As he Falls Mortally Wounded

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 2.—J. B. Barbare, a member of the Montgomery police force, was shot and fatally wounded shortly after 11 o'clock Monday night, and Will Temple, a negro, charged with the crime, was almost instantly killed by a bullet from the gun of the officer before he fell to the ground.

FIND PHYSICIAN SLAIN

Police Believes Murderer Had Bought Oil Stocks of Him

Chicago, Oct. 2.—Dr. Andrian Reginald Kerreman was found dead by firemen early Tuesday in his burning home.

Dr. Kerreman, a surgeon major in the First Illinois Reserve Militia, evidently was beaten and strangled, detectives stated. His flesh had been burned in several places. Deeds to property were scattered about a bookcase. The physician had practiced medicine in Englewood, a Chicago suburb, twenty-five years.

Three youths and two janitors are under arest in conjunction with the case. Letters from several persons asking return of money with which oil stock had been purchased from the physician, were found among his papers, and the police advance the theory that that was a motive for the crime.

ENGLAND'S CRISIS

Present Conditions Said to be Favorable to Strikers

London, Oct. 2.—As the crisis in the great railway strike approaches the fortunes of battle appear to be swinging toward the strikers.

Late this evening it was authoritatively learned that the transport workers are about to declare for a general strike. If this comes to pass only the third member of the "triple alliance"—the miner's organization—remains outside the great industrial tie-up, but only partly, and temporarily, for with the rail and transport workers out, the bulk of the mines would have to shut down automatically.

News of the imminent transport paralysis comes in the face of optimistic official statements issued by the government from time to time today.

The government's widespread use of troops was the signal for the railmen's leaders to look around for help from other trades. Up to last night they were against several sympathetic strikes, for fear this might bring on an upheaval beyond their own control

LOSES $50 TO GYPSY

Fortune Teller Works Old Game in Making Away With Bills

Lancaster, Pa., Oct. 2.—The police of this city are searching for a Roumanian gypsy woman who fleeced Mrs. Bertha Rampulla, of this city, out of $50 by making her believe that she possessed occult power to drive off evil spirits. After paying the nomad $4.00 for forecasting her future, Mrs. Rampulla told the visitor that someone had put an evil spell upon her. The gypsy said she could drive it off without costing the sufferer a cent.

She then asked Mrs. Rampulla for $50 in paper money, which was produced and she professed to sew it in a silk bag that she told her victim to wear about her neck for four days, at the expiration of which time the work would be completed.

Failing to appear at the expiration of the time limit Mrs. Rampulla became suspicious, ripped open the silk bag and discovered that it contained only crumpled paper.

Shoots up Cashville, Killing Ross Gardiner and Terrorizing Community

Onancock, Va., Oct. 2.—Held for shooting up the Cashville neighborhood, resulting in the death of young Ross Gardiner, son of Frank Gardiner, Clarence Crockett is in the Accomac County jail sobering up from the effects of drinking a liquor substitute.

Crockett entered the store of Jas. Edwards near Cashville apparently wild from the effects of drink. He opened fire on the occupants, who sought safety in flight. After damaging the contents of the store to a considerable extent he went outside and fired at Mrs. Edwards.

He then jumped into his carriage and, racing his horse at top speed, he shot indiscriminately at every one he met, three shots striking Ross Gardiner, who died almost immediately. Gardiner's horse was wounded so severely that the animal had to be killed.

It is alleged that Crockett recently placed Paris Green in a neighbor's well.

He is now in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury.

CAN KEEP LIQUOR HOME

Conferees Reach Agreement on Prohibition Enforcement Act

The conferees of the Senate and House yesterday reached an agreement on the provisions of the prohibition enforcement act, which they will report to both houses today. Following are some of most important features of the agreement.

It will be lawful to possess any quantity of liquor in private homes and to serve the same to bona fide guests, but the burden of proof to show such liquors were obtained fore the law became effective and that they are not sold will be upon the possessor.

All liqurs containing more than one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol are declared to be "intoxicating" under the law.

The penalty for manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors is fixed at a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment for not more than six months for the first offense; for a second offense the fine is fixed at not less than $200 nor more than $2,000 and imprisonment not less than one month nor more than five years.

GARY STILL DEFIANT

Steel Leader Reasserts Before Senate Committee He Will Not Meet With Union Leaders

The United States Steel Corporation will have no dealings whatever with the unions nor with union leaders claiming to represent the workers, Judge Elbert H. Gary, executive head of the corporation, told the Senate committee which is investigating the steel strike yesterday.

Judge Gary declared that the sole issue involved in the strike is the "open shop," and declared that the corporation will refuse to yield an inch on that point. He declared that only a small percentage of the workers belong to the unions and walked out when the strike was called.

A large percentage of the men he said, declined to join the unions but were forced by threats of the union leaders to quit their places.

According to Judge Gary the hours of labor and the wages paid are satisfactory to the workers and please all but the leaders of the unions.

The lowest wage rates, Gary said, paid to unskilled labor working ten hours a day, is 42 cents an hour for ten hours and time and a half for all hours over eight, making $4.62 for the ten hour day.

"That's the cheapest labor for men. There are boys opening doors, some of whom get $3 a day," Gary explained.

The highest wage of the "rollers" is $32.56 a day.

The general average of hired employes, excluding executives, is $6.27 a day for ten hours in the manufacturing plants, Gary said, and the unskilled average is 45 a day; skilled, $6.70.

In the open shop, Gary declared, promotion is by merit.

"I am not antagonizing unions. They have a perfect right to organize. It all comes down to one question—unions—the open or the closed shop. We stand for the open shop. We claim that a man can work for us whether he belongs to a union or not."

CHARGED WITH MURDER

Joseph P. Sylvia Declared to be Slayer of Emmett E. Wood

Joseph P. Sylvia was lodged in the District jail last night formally charged with the murder of Emmett E. Wood, soda fountain clerk, on September 18, in the basement of the Liggett drug store, in the Westory Building, northeast corner F and Fourteenth streets, Washington.

At an inquest in the District morgue yesterday a coroner's jury decided Sylvia was the perpetrator of the crime. The verdict was based on strong circumstantial evidence.

Wood, the jury found, came to his death "by fractured skull, hemorrhage and shock, caused by being hit on the head by an iron pipe in the hands of Joseph Sylvia."

Eighteen witnesses were present at the inquest, but only seven were heard, the jury frequently interrupting the testimony to declare that enough evidence had been presented.

The most startling fact brought out at the inquest was the announcement by Dr. W. Browne Carr, deputy coroner, that Wood had been killed not more than thirty minutes after he was last seen in the store.

This declaration was established by the fact that an autopsy, performed on the boy's body by Dr. Carr, and statements by employes at the drug store, proved Wood had eaten lunch in the store just before leaving. The food he had eaten, the autopsy brought out, was in the first chamber of the stomach from which it would have been expelled after thirty minutes.

Wood was seen leaving the store at 12:20 o'clock on the afternoon of the murder. Sylvia, who is a Portuguese, and Wood were seen in the basement shortly before 12:50 o'clock. At that time, detectives claim, Sylvia was threatening Wood with his clenched fist. Wood was never seen alive after that time, and, according to Carr, must have met his death shortly after the last witness had left the basement, which, so far as is known, was occupied only by the two men.

SENTENCED 20 YEARS

Camden, N. J., Oct. 2.—James Whitman, a negro, who assaulted Mrs. Mary Motsey, a white woman, on a lonely road near Merchantville, three days ago, was sentenced to a term of twenty to thirty years in State prison by Judge John B. Kates, in a special session of Camden Criminal Court yesterday morning.

As the trial concluded at 10:30 Judge Kates pronounced sentence. The negro appealed for protection from the mob, the court assured him that such protection had been provided, and a minute later Whitings placed in a high speed automobile in charge of half a dozen deputy sheriffs and rushed to the State prison at Trenton.

CHARGE ATTACK ON GIRL

Ridgley, Md., Woman Brought Into Chester Lunch Room in Serious Condition

Chester, Pa., Oct. 2.—Edward Farrell, 18 years old, and James McLaughlin, 25 arrested at their homes yesterday morning, are being held by the police pending the result of an alleged attack upon Miss Edna Rammer, aged 18, of Ridgley, Md., The girl is in the Chester Hospital in a serious condition. Three other young men, whom the police say were implicated with Farrell and McLaughlin in the attack upon the girl, and who are said to be known, are being sought.

Nicholas Barnett, night clerk at Collins' Cafe, 1141 Edgemont avenue says 5 young men brought the girl into his place of business at 5 o'clock yesterday morning and asked that she be permited to stay there until daylight, otherwise she would have to sleep in the park. A breakfast for the girl was paid for and she was permitted to rest in a rocking chair.

About 6 o'clock Barnett says he attempted to arouse Miss Rammer and found that she was unconscious. She appeared to be in a dying condition, according to Barnett, and had her removed to the hospital after he had notified the police. Barnett says he can identify all five of the young men.

RUETHER A NEW IDOL

His Pitching And Batting Feature Cincinnati's Victory Over Chicago

Cincinnati, Oct. 2.—Cincinnati yesterday won the opening game of the world's series from the Chicago Americans by a score of 9 to 1.

Every series develops a new idol for the fans, and Walter Ruether, who pitched the Reds to victory, was the unanimous choice last night. He not only held the White Sox to six scattered hits and really deserved a shut out but rolled up a batting average of 1,000 for himself.

RICHMOND THEATRE

The treat of the year to screen comedy lovers is Goldwyn's announcement that beautiful Mabel Normand, is a diving and swimming Venus in her newest and greatest Goldwyn Picture, "A Perfect 36," at the Richmond Theatre tonight by Tex Charwate, also author of her previous whirlwind comedy success, "Peck's Bad Girl." "A Perfect 36," is the big event for thousands, who have been clamoring for another glimpse of the charming comedienne in a bathing suit performing comedy water feats as only Mabel Normand can.

"A Perfect 36" may justly be called a comedy riot. No picture in which the Goldwyn star has ever appeared gave her wider scope for the comedy she revels in—an art that indisputably stamps Mabel Normand as the greatest of feminine funmakers on the screen today.

A Harold Lloyd comedy will also be shown.

To Our Patrons

Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1919.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.
